

The Prevention and Solution of the Adolescent Pregnancy Problem Act, B.E. 2559 (2016)

A law that focuses on adolescents' rights and an integrated approach to prevent and alleviate adolescent pregnancies

Ministry of Public Health

Ministry of Social Development and Human Security

Ministry of Education

Five Main Ministries

are responsible for issuing ministerial orders and regulations for the execution of the Act

Ministry of Labour

Ministry of Interior

Definition and Rights of Adolescents under the Act any individuals aged above 10 but not over 20

Adolescents' Rights

Right to make informed decisions

Right to receive social welfare services

Right to have access to education and information

Right to be treated equally and without discrimination

Right to receive reproductive health services

Right to enjoy confidentiality and privacy

Key Mechanism under the Act

The Prevention and Solution of the Adolescent Pregnancy Problem Committee

The Prime Minister of Thailand
Chairman

The Committee includes 8 high-level government officials, 5 experts, and 2 youth representatives from the Children and Youth Council of Thailand.
Director General of the Department of Health is a member and Secretary of the Committee.

Functions of the Committee

Propose adolescent pregnancy prevention and alleviation policies and strategies to the cabinet

Provide guidelines for implementation by state agencies and the private sector

Propose amendments of relevant laws and offer advice on the issuance of ministerial orders

Submit a report on adolescent pregnancy prevention and alleviation to the cabinet at least once a year

Provide recommendations and solutions to address the implementation bottlenecks faced by state agencies and the private sector

Key Measures to Prevent and Alleviate Adolescent Pregnancies

Educational Institutions

Provide age-appropriate sexuality education to students, and provide and train teachers

Provide counselling, support, and protection for pregnant students so that they are able to continue their education

Establish a referral system for reproductive health and social welfare services

Workplaces

Provide accurate and adequate information to adolescent employees to help them prevent adolescent pregnancies

Support adolescent employees' access to reproductive health counselling and services

Establish a referral system for social welfare services

Public Health Facilities

Provide accurate and adequate information to adolescent clients to help them prevent adolescent pregnancies

Provide quality reproductive health counselling and services based on adolescents' rights

Establish a referral system for social welfare services

Social Welfare Organizations

Provide occupational training and employment opportunities to pregnant adolescents

Provide alternative families for adolescent who are not capable of raising their own children

Set up youth networks at the provincial and district levels to monitor and take action to prevent and alleviate problems associated with adolescent pregnancies

Encourage state agencies and the private sector to provide support to pregnant adolescents and their families

Local Administrative Organizations

Issue local regulations to ensure that adolescents can exercise their rights in accordance with this Act